1 A Again, I've answered your question by saying that
2 you can't ignore what's gone on before that.

3 Q So you're admitting then that there is nothing in
4 the letter of April 14th, 2000, that sets forth
5 anything on lack of medical documentation?

6 A I stand on my answer to the question.

7 Q Would you answer my question? Is there anything in 8 the letter of April 14th, 2000, that says that the 9 termination was for anything other than medical
10 documentation?

11 A I'm sorry. I have answered your question.

12 Q The answer is no, is that correct?

13 A The answer is that all of the information that has
14 gone on before, all of the requests are needed.

15 MR. HENEFER: Can we go off the record
16 for a second?

17 VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record at
18 2:45 p.m.

19 (Short recess.)

20 VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record
21 at 2:47 p.m.

22 BY MR. DIVEGLIA:

23 Q Do you have something more to offer us?

24 A Yes. This particular letter does not cite the 25 other reasons why, as other letters do, as to

1 reason for termination.

2 Q Sure. Typically when you terminate, there is the
3 whole laundry list for termination, but here there
4 was only one, is that right?

5 A This particular letter cites just one.

6 Q And in fact, this whole file was rereviewed,
7 de novo, from the beginning, wasn't it, by Sharon
8 Hyde?

9 A I was -- I left the company at that point. I can't 10 testify to that.

11 Q Okay. Isn't it correct that you could have easily
12 sent this file to an outside consultant, an
13 oncologist, that was one of the things that you
14 folks could have done and said, look, here is what
15 Drs. Seidman and Borgen are saying, what do you
16 think, is this reasonable, does this make any sense
17 to you? You could have done that, couldn't you?

18 A I understand our medical consultants considered
19 that, and I would defer to them in that regard.

20 Q Well, but you're -- you're overlooking this.
21 You're involved in the decision to terminate. In 22 fact, I think your testimony today was, you're the 23 guy who terminated. Are you the terminator?

24 MR. HENEFER: Objection to the form of 25 the question.
